Dear Mr. Casey:

On Thursday, October 6, 1983, the Louisville Defender Newspaper with assistance from Louisville Central Area, Inc. and several government agencies will publish the sixth annual "Louisville and Urban Development" edition.

This year's highly expanded edition will feature a salute to the Galleria's first anniversary and a very important supplement on "BLACKS IN GOVERNMENT". This special supplement will highlight local, state and federal government agencies' efforts to hire, promote and appoint blacks to high and mid-level management/staff positions. Equally important will be the coverage given to the overall efforts of various agencies to stand firmly behind the good-faith commitment to provide equality of blacks in both employment and representation.

Contrary to what might be viewed as a new adopted policy of some government agencies, it is our belief that many of the local, state and federal agencies representing Louisville, Jefferson County and the Commonwealth of Kentucky have maintained a sincere commitment to the black citizenry. This special edition on "Blacks In Government" will provide a unique opportunity, at a most important time, to inform the black community of your continuing commitment to the equality of opportunity.

We would welcome your consideration to participate in this worthwhile edition by highlighting, pictorially and editorially, blacks in management/staff level positions. We will call in a few days to discuss this edition with you or a representative from your office. However, please feel free to use the enclosed, postage-free reply card to reserve your space in this edition. Thank you for your cooperation.

Cordially,
